Who's the greatest?

Who is the greatest baseball player who ever lived? Dimaggio? Robinson? Oliva? Rodrigez? Or substitute for "baseball player" the greatest runner, the author, the president, or whatever your hobby is. Who is the greatest? In the slice of first century history called The Book of Acts, we encounter a man we might call the greatest in many ways. Study Acts 8:1-3 with us this weekend in our worship service, Sunday night Growth Group and daily devotions. Let God speak to you through his Word. It won't make any of us the greatest, but we will better appreciate how God works in today's world . . . and in our world.

To receive 250-word devotions on Acts 8:1-3 this week, Monday – Friday, go to st-andrew-online.org/devotions.

Who's the greatest...

Some background

Acts 7:58, They threw him out of the city and stoned him. The witnesses laid their cloaks at the feet of a young man named Saul.

8:1, Saul agreed with putting Stephen to death.

8:3, Saul was trying to destroy the church by going into one house after another, dragging off both men and women, and putting them in prison.
