

St. Andrew

Love God. Love each other. Serve the world.

A Better Kingdom
Esther 1:10-22
September 3 & 6, 2020

A tale of two kingdoms

No, we won't be studying the Dickens' classic this weekend. The Spirit intends to shape our thoughts and our lives through the second half of Esther, chapter 1. It's set in the 5th century BC, but it might as well be 21st century America. We live in an earthly kingdom, of sorts. But thank God he has brought us into another kingdom and under another king, Jesus. We live in two kingdoms; and it helps to keep them straight. Welcome to worship.

One kingdom feeds _____.
Vs. 10

One kingdom _____ men.
Vs. 10

One kingdom _____ women.
Vs. 11

Queen Vashti's decision

Vs. 12

Men and boys

#1.

#2.

#3.

#4

Women and girls

#1.

#2.

#3.

The Wise Men

Vs. 13 - 17

If you're wrong, _____

Vs. 18 - 19

Jesus has a better _____

Worship

Gathering

Gathering song	"You Are My Vision"
Welcome
Confession of sins
Assurance of forgiveness
Statement of faith	Explanation to the 2nd article of the Apostles' Creed
Song	"You Are My Vision"
Time to greet

Word

Children's devotion
Scripture	John 3:1-6
Song	"Crown Him with Many Crowns"
Today's Bible teaching
Prayers

Thanksgiving

Preparation for the Lord's Supper
Words of institution
Words of invitation
Song	"We Will Feast in the House of Zion"
Offering

Sending

Blessing

Serving Today

Lead musician: Ashley Renstrom
Vocalists: Dan Kremer, Rachel Kamin
Guitar: Terry Jacobs, Jon Povich
Drums: Justin Beck
Song slides: Micki Ross
Video: Thad Molling, Dan Wamer
Communion Care: Sue Martalock

A/V Booth

Thurs: Lauren Welsh
8:00 AM: Rachel Martalock
10:30 AM: Carter Roekle

Greeters

Thurs: Piri Kerr
8:00 AM: Joe Kotecki, Georgia Siler
10:30 AM: Kevin and Caryn Ostrand

Ushers

Thurs: Jim Pease
8:00 AM: Todd Treichel
10:30 AM: Elijah Grow

Cleaning/Sanitizing

After 8:00 AM service: Brandon Brickner

For announcements and information, see the Weekly at st-andrew-online.org.